

ICMPD Job Profile

PROJECT OFFICER¹ - OBSERVE-CV

ORGANISATIONAL SETTING:

OBSERVE-CV aims at building the capacities of the Cabo Verdean National Observatory on Human Trafficking through the refinement of roles and responsibilities, development of standard operating procedures, establishment of regular meetings, and the possible consolidation and streamlining of anti-trafficking tools. Hence, the project strives to render the National Observatory fully functional and capable of fulfilling its mandate. On the one hand, the project activities will strive to build the National Observatory's capacities to coordinate, collaborate and share information among its member institutions. On the other hand, it will facilitate its mandate to oversee national policies against trafficking and child sexual exploitation nationally. As a final objective, OBSERVE-CV will produce the knowledge the Observatory requires to propose, revise and implement evidence-based national policies.

FUNCTION (Task Identity):

The Project Officer is responsible for the implementation and coordination of OBSERVE-CV activities in Cabo Verde, under the Anti-Trafficking Programme team's supervision, in Vienna, Austria. S/he supports planning of project activities and coordinates implementation in collaboration with project stakeholders, beneficiaries, experts and partners.

The Project Officer administers project inputs according to the approved project documentation, work plans and budgets, and in line with ICMPD's rules and business processes as well as partner and donor agreements. S/he is responsible for a timely achievement of high-quality outputs within the assigned area of work.

The Project Officer plans, organises and supervises the work of experts and contractors ensuring high quality and timeliness of their outputs. S/he contributes to production of substantive project content and prepares inputs to donor and other substantive reports. The Project Officer contributes to overall planning of the project and participates in project communications activities preparing content and inputs. The Project Officer assesses project results and formulates inputs to the development of new initiatives.

The Project Officer located in Cabo Verde works under the supervision of the Project Manager, in Vienna, and in close collaboration with other project team members, particularly the project assistant, and project experts. S/he cultivates contacts with the project stakeholders and partners at the working level.
